THRACE-LINQ HIRES NEW PRODUCTS SALES MANAGER

SUMMERVILLE, SC—December 13, 2007—Thrace-LINQ, a global supplier of woven and nonwoven polypropylene-based fabrics for a wide variety of textile applications, announces the addition of Michael Jeziorski as Sales Manager, New Products.

Jeziorski is responsible for developing and managing the launch of new products and services for Thrace-LINQ, including marketing communications, pricing, strategy implementation and metrics. Jeziorski's extensive experience in the textile industry includes over 25 years managing the sales and marketing of new products. He comes to Thrace-LINQ from Hanes Industries, a supplier of woven and nonwoven textile construction materials, where he served as manager of national accounts. His previous experience includes a variety of sales, marketing, customer service and product management positions with companies such as Propex, Inc.; Poly-Bond, Inc.; and the Dexter Nonwovens Division of Dexter Corp. (Ahlstrom Corp.).

"We are honored to have added to our team a professional with such a proven track record of success," said Thrace-LINQ Vice President Davis Taylor. "I am confident that Michael's vast experience and knowledge of our industry will contribute to increased value by expanding product solutions for our customers and to the continued growth of Thrace-LINQ."

About Thrace-LINQ: Thrace-LINQ, Inc. is a global supplier of woven and nonwoven polypropylene-based Geosynthetic fabrics for a wide variety of technical textile applications.
